NEW NETHERLAND FAMILIES compiled by Wilson V. Ledley. 1958. pp. 1088.

Address: the compiler, 15 William Street, New York 5, New York. (Microfilm)

The compiler of these records on some twelve early families in New York State, is the Executive Secretary of the Holland Society of New York and instead of incorporating them in manuscript form to be filed in various libraries he has chosen to commit them to the newer medium of microfilm. In selecting the particular families recorded he has been guided by certain definite premises. Some were of interest because of his personal descent from them; others because they were difficult to separate from one another due to similarity of name; and thirdly, because, with one exception, the Van Doorns, no genealogy of the family had been published. The latter was The Van Doorn Family in Holland and America by H. Van Doren Honeyman. From it he has taken the line of Cornelius of Monmouth, whose origin Honeyman could not place, and carried it back to the pioneer Claes Diedlofszen Doorn who arrived at New Amsterdam in the 1660's. Some of the remaining families are those noted below.

The Van de Water and Van Sise families have been expanded to five generations during which period they remained largely in New York State. The former, like the Van der Hoefs, which are also given here, had in common the fact that they were founded by brothers who had been brought to this country by a widowed mother. Jan Janszen Fyn, progenitor of the Dutch Fines, who was of Newtown, L. I., in 1666, is shown to have had no apparent connection with Peter Stuyvesant's Capt. Francois Fyn of Blackwell's Island. N. Y.

Among other families in Kings County (now Brooklyn) included here, the English Griggs of Gravesend settled there in 1669, but like several others they became almost entirely Dutch through intermarriage. Here the problem was complicated by having others of the same name scattered along the Atlantic seaboard. The Van Cleefs had two Johns telescoped into one. This was a large family which became strong in central New Jersey but it had one line which developed the pioneer spirit early and moved to Kentucky at the time of Daniel Boone.

Probably the most surprising discovery was that the first Michael Pauluszen Van der Voort, who was in New Amsterdam in 1640, late in life moved with his youngest son (previously considered to have died young) to Queen Anne's County, Maryland, and there founded the Vanderford family. This is one of the few instances of a translated name, albeit only the latter half in this case.

The DeGraff-DeGraw-DeGrove group, as presently determined, actually comprises four different families. DeGraff is the Dutch translation of the French LeConte, both meaning the count; the Dutchess County, N. Y., family was founded by Jean LeConte who arrived in New Orange in 1674. No relationship between him and the Schenectady, N. Y., DeGraffs, whose progenitor Claes Andriesse first appeared in 1688, has been found. Descendants of Leendert Arentsen DeGrauw, who was in New Amsterdam in 1638, went early to Bergen County, N. J., except for one line which returned to Manhattan. In the Federal Census of 1790 members of this family were almost hopelessly confused with the DeGroves who stemmed from Adolph Pieterszen DeGroef who was first of record here in 1657. After the Revolution some of his DeGrove descendants became involved in a suit to regain some confiscated Wall Street property, an account of which appeared in Vols. 37 and 47 of THE RECORD.

In outlining the early generations of the particular families here presented, the compiler has made an essential contribution to our knowledge of some of the well-known, but genealogically hitherto untraced, Dutch families of the Empire State.

J. CRAWFORD HARTMAN.

--from The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, April 1959

Included are the first five generations of the following families all fully indexed:

DE GRAFF - DE GRAW - DE GROVE - DOORN - FINE - GRIGGS
VAN CLEEF - VANDERHOEF - VANDEROORT - VAN DE WATER -
VAN KIRK - VAN SISE

VANDERHOEFS

The most complete account of the early Vanderhoefs in this country is given in Mr. Andrew J. Provost, Jr.'s monograph on the Caljer Family in his Early Settlers of Bushwick from which this compiler has drawn quite freely. Since this family was not the primary interest in that work, however, the writer did not pursue its ramifications very far and hence left room for other independent research.

In this country the family was founded by the widow Geertje Cornelis (Van der Hoeve) who emigrated in 1661 with her six children. After remaining a few years in Kings County she and her younger children followed her eldest son who had proceeded on to Albany, where he died not long after. The second son Cornelis only survived his mother a short while in that section and upon his death his widow returned to her original home in Brooklyn where she remarried. From this couple descends the senior line of the family which, after two generations, became established in Monmouth County of New Jersey. From there branches spread westward in the early 19th Century and also back to New York City.

The progenitor of the junior and by far more numerous group of the family was John, youngest son of the widow. He also left Albany for New York City but finally settled in Bergen County of Northern New Jersey. From there the family spread into both Morris and Essex Counties, while one line returned at the time of the Revolution to Rensselaer County in Upper New York State. Strangely enough, most accounts of the family trace the ancestry of all to John and seem to ignore the smaller line in Kings County. This is especially odd since the Hall of Records there is filled with references to the second Cornelis who was Constable of Brooklyn and a long-time Justice of the Peace.

There is one Vanderoef family cited in the Ferrier Genealogy of Orange County, New York, founded by another Cornelius who is said to have emigrated from Holland shortly before the Revolution. Since historically there was very little immigration from Holland between 1673 and 1848, and as other instances have been found where descendants are mistaken by several generations as to the identity and time of arrival of their first ancestor, this claim is viewed with some suspicion. Inasmuch as there were at least four other contemporary Corneliuses of the original Van der Hoef family in this general vicinity at the time, it would not be surprising to learn that this is an unidentified line of the well known family.

FIRST GENERATION

1. CORNELIS VAN DER HOEVE, lived and died in Holland prior to 1661 when his widow and their six children emigrated to the New World. She was Geertje Van Filpen who as the widow Geertje Cornelis arrived in New Amsterdam on the ship "Beaver" on May 9, 1661, with her children aged 21, 19, 17, 15, 13 and 10 years of age. Doubtless she later moved to the Bedford section of Brooklyn where her younger son Cornelis was listed as a magistrate in 1673. About 1675 she and her younger children followed the eldest son Guybert who had previously gone to Albany. There she married again one Steven Janszen Conyn but soon became estranged and they separated amicably. In 1683 as Geertje Van der Slooyen, with her sons Cornelis and Jan, daughter Elizabeth and the latter's husband Jurian Caljer, became members of the Reformed Dutch Church of Albany. In her will as Geertje Van Filpen, dated Dec. 3, 1684, she named four of the children (*) and probably the only surviving issue as listed below. She died on Dec. 29, 1684 in Albany.

- * 1a. GUYSBERT CORNELISE, b. about 1640²
- * 2. *CORNELIS CORNELISE, b. about 1642
- 3. *Neeltje, b. about 1644
- 4. *Elizabeth, b. about 1646, m. Jurian CALJER
- * 5. *JAN CORNELISE, b. about 1648
- 6a. Hadduwina (sup.), who together with Francisca Rombout witnessed a baptism Feb. 15, 1684, at the N.Y. Dutch Church, b. about 1651, of whom no further record.

SECOND GENERATION

1a. GUYSBERT CORNELISE VAN DER HOEVE, born probably about 1640 in Holland, has not previously been identified in this family, but his inclusion together with the supposed sister Hadduwina accounts for all of the six children who arrived with his mother in 1661. It appears that he preceded the rest of the family to Albany since in the Court Minutes of Albany, Rensselaerwyk & Schenectady from 1668 to 1675 there are several references to Guybert Cornelise. One on Nov. 10, 1670 named him as "ander Oeven" wherein his and Andries Hansz' grain had been attached in a dispute over some building they had done "behiel Kindorhook." Other references involving construction doubtless pertain to him but some probably refer to Guybert Cornelis van den Bergh in the same area. Those after that of May 25, 1671, are in this category and it can only be presumed he was dead without issue by that time.

1. Birth dates computed from passenger list data.

2. CORNELIS CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEVE was born about 1642 in Holland, possibly at Dordt, the port from which the family sailed in 1661. There is some conflict in the references in his early career since several sources state that he was a magistrate in Bedford, Brooklyn Township, in 1673. This, however, does not appear in O'Collahan's Register of New Netherland, and since his son of the same name later occupied such a position, the reference is believed to pertain to the latter. On the other hand in the Early Records of Albany County we find that Cornelis purchased a house in Albany on June 3, 1672, where the family apparently moved probably shortly after the death of his elder brother. On March 4, 1677/8 Cornelis, having bought another house in Albany, sold his first one, and he was next recorded as attending on 7/17 Oct. 1674 the funeral of the Patroon Jeromiah Van Rensselaer. The Albany Court Minutes show his appointment as an official carter of Albany on Apr. 4, 1676, in which capacity he continued during 1678 & 1679. On June 27, 1681 he asked to be re-appointed carman since he "suffered great misfortune through the sinking of his boat" and this was done the following July 5th. Cornelis and a friend on May 2, 1682, contracted with his brother-in-law Julian Caillier for the latter to build them a 36 foot boat with four banks which probably was used in river shipping. In his will, dated Sept. 3, 1685, he named his wife Metje Beekman, but not his children, who were to receive half share in the event she remarried. She was the daughter of Cornelis & Magdalena Beekman of New Utrecht, and shortly after the death of her husband Cornelis, who was buried Jan. 10, 1688/9 at the Albany Church, she returned to Kings County where on Aug. 9, 1690, she married in the Flatbush Church John BIBOU of Bedford, by whom she had additional sons Petrus and Jacobus. In a deed dated Aug. 30, 1705, Bibou named the surviving Van der Hoeve children designated (*) below.

- * 7. *CORNELIS, b. about 1675
- 8. *Alike, m. Jacobus VAN DE WATER, of Rensselaer, N.Y.
(who d. int. Oct. 4, 1712, when her brother Cornelis was named in the proceedings. NYS 8:143)

- 10. *Martha, b. about 1681
- 11. *Janetje or Jonica, b. about 1683, m. before May 17, 1704, Abraham SLEGHT when they bp. son Hendrick
- * 12. MARTIN, bp. Mar. 1, 1685, RDC Albany
- 13. *Susannah, bp. May 5, 1707 RDC Albany, m. before Oct 9, 1720 Michiel DU CHENE (probably) when they were joint sponsors at a baptism.
- * 14. *JOHANNES, bp. 25 Aug 1689 RDC Albany (posthumous),
sp. Johannes van der Hoeve, Cornelis Caillier

6. JAN (CORNELISE VAN DER HOEVEN) son of Cornelis (#1), was born in Holland possibly at Leest in about 1648. He emigrated with his widowed mother and her family in 1661 first to New Amsterdam and appears to have gone with them to Albany about 1671. He was first listed as a member of the Dutch Church there in 1683, and on Oct. 14, 1693 was appointed Constable of Albany for a year. In 1684 he was listed as in arrears in his taxes there and the same year he sued for payment for shoes delivered which indicates he was probably a shoemaker at the time. As constable he appeared only infrequently in the Albany records and sometime after his service in that capacity and before the baptism of son Hendrick at Bergen in 1696, he moved to Bergen County, although he and his wife were listed as members of the New York Dutch Church on Mar. 3, 1697. He appears to have died sometime after 1705. Jan had married Dorothy Jans of Albany, daughter of Jan Jochems and Marytje CALJER. Her mother had married secondly in 1661 at Catskill Guybert Bogart, and the third son of Jan Cornelise could have been named for his as well as for his uncle. Identification of her parentage, however, is only tentative by both Messrs. Provost (Caljer Family) and Soverenith (Colonial Families of Long Island). The children of Jan and Dorothy were baptised at Albany except for the last three which were at Bergen, N.J.:

THIRD GENERATION

7. CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEVE, son of Cornelis Cornelise (#2) was probably born at Albany around 1675, and upon the death of his father he returned with his mother to Kings County where she was remarried to Jan Bibou. He and his surviving brothers and sisters were named in a deed of property settlement by Bibou Aug. 30, 1705. On the same date he paid his step-father Bibou £37.10 $\frac{1}{2}$ for his house and utensils in Bedford, while on the previous day he had acknowledged as eldest son of his father, late of Albany, the estate to John Bibou (GBR 66:231, Kings 2:42). A "Cornelius Verhove" is listed by Bergen (citing Furman's Notes and Court Records) as being Constable of Brooklyn in 1700. He and his wife Elisabeth Thomas were granted letters of administration on the estate of Thomas Lambertson, her father to whom she was sole heir on Feb. 5, 1702/3 (NYS 17362). He was one of the founders of Bedford. There are numerous references to him in the Kings County Deeds and beginning on Apr. 8, 1720 he was referred to as a Justice of the Peace of the County (Kings 4:234). Doubtless the inheritance of his wife was considerable, as evidenced by the various deeds and also the cancelled £1,000 bond he had returned to one Jacobus Bonnet and found in the latter's estate in New Jersey in 1734. He was last mentioned on Oct. 8, 1742 when as one of a group of eight they sold a quarter interest in the house of Dr. Barnardus Freeman to a group of subscribers of whom he and his son Cornelius, Jr., each pledged 10 shillings. His first wife died sometime before Mar. 2, 1715, when Cornelius and his wife Syntje SCHAMP were witnesses at a baptism in the New York Dutch Church. She was the daughter of Pieter Schamp (Pierre Deschamps), one of Bushwick's early settlers, widow of Michael Van der Voort, and mother-in-law of his children Cornelius, Jr. and Netje. Children by his first wife Elisabeth Thomas were:

- + 24. CORNELIUS, bp. Brooklyn 27 Nov 1698, sp. Thomas Lammertse & Metje Bibout (grandparents)
- 25. Netje, bp. Brooklyn 1 Dec 1700, sp. Benjamin Van de Water & Elsje Vander Hoeve (aunt)
- + 26. MARTIN (sup.), b. about 1702. He is placed in this family as the only likely father of Jacob (#105) who named his cousin Michael Van der Voort, son of Netje above, as an executor in his will. He was doubtless named for his probably recently deceased uncle Martin (#12)

12. MARTIN VAN DER HOEVE, son of Cornelius (#2), was baptised at Albany on Mar. 1, 1685 in the Dutch Church. He probably died young as he was not mentioned in the deed settlement dividing the family property between the Van der Hoeve and Bibou children. The legend, which originated in Messler's Somerset County (p. 35) and which was repeated by Bergen, still persists that Martin Van Der Hoef left Bedford and settled near New Brunswick, N.J., prior to 1699. This is impossible on the face of it since the child was then only 14 years of age, there is no record of any other Martin in the family then, there is no other record of a Martin around New Brunswick in that period, nor are there any Van der Hoeves unaccounted for in the section or in any respect at that time. Possibly this was a typographical error for 1799 since the family name appeared in Middlesex County just prior to that date and one may have been named Martin.

14. JOHANNES VAN DER HOEF, son of Cornelius (#2), was baptised posthumously at Albany on Aug. 25, 1689. He came with his mother as a baby to Kings County and went with the Bibou family of his stepfather upon their removal to Staten Island. All of his children were baptised there and he and his wife witnessed a baptism Mar. 14, 1724, in the Dutch Church of Port Richmond. He was listed as a debtor in the estate of Zachariah Alion of Woodbridge, N.J., in the latter's will dated Jan. 29, 1750 (NJA 30:17), and possibly had moved there later in life since his son Cornelius made his will there. No will for Johannes has been found in New York nor New Jersey hence the date of his death is unknown. From baptismal records we learn that he married Anna SWEEM whose parentage is likewise unknown. The following children were all baptised at Port Richmond:

27. Lea, bp. 19 Apr 1719, sp. Johannes Sween, Jr. and Lea Sween, d. young
- * 28. CORNELIS, bp. 18 Mar 1721/2, sp. Nachiel du Chene, Susannah Van der Hoeven (aunt & husband)
29. Lea, bp. 2 Feb 1723/4, sp. Jacobus Diebouts (half brother) and Marya Sween
30. Elizabeth, bp. 29 May 1726, sp. Anthony Sween, n. before 1748 William RANDEL, New York
31. JOHANNES, bp. 18 Feb 1727/8, no sponsors, nothing further
32. ANTHONY, bp. 24 Jan 1730/1, sp. Lea Sween, nothing further (possibly named for maternal uncle or grandfather whose name is not known).

15. CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEF, son of Jan (#6), baptised Sep. 16, 1683, in the Albany Dutch Church, went with his family to Bergen County, New Jersey, where on Oct. 18, 1712 at the Hackensack Dutch Church he married Elizabeth Louweryns, born 1691 or 2, daughter of Lawrence ACKERMAN and his wife Geertje Egberts of Albany. He was listed as a debtor in the estate of John McDowell, physician, Hackensack (NJA 30:316), and he made his own will there as a yeoman on Jan. 16, 1742. Since this was not probated until May 28, 1765, he probably died that year. The will, in which his wife and friends Jacob Blinkerhoof and Jacob Oldwatter were executors, named various children (*). H. S. Ackerman in the Ackerman Family lists these same children (including also a Peter, born 1723) but reverses the order of Johanie and Laurence which is felt to be incorrect from other indications.

- 39. *Neally

16. JOHANNES VAN DER HOEF, son of Jan (#6), baptised May 9, 1686 at Albany, went with his family to Bergen County, N.J. However, it is fairly evident from the baptismal records below that after 1714 he moved from there for 10 to 15 years to New York City, but returned before 1729 to what is now the Belleville area. As he and his wife witnessed baptisms of both daughters listed below as supposed, there seems to be little doubt as to their relationship. As there is no record of an estate in New York nor New Jersey, the time of his death is uncertain. He had married at the Dutch Church in Hackensack on May 15, 1714, Lea HOPPE, da. of Matthijs & Anna (Paulus) Hoppen, and they had:

- + 40. JOHANNES, bp. Hackensack 12 Dec 1714
- 41. Annatje (sup.), m. Second River 16 Aug 1735 Abraham MESSEKER and bp. da. Lea 25 Jan 1736 Second River, sp. Johannes Vander Hoef & Lea Hoppe
- 42. MATHEUS, bp. New York 5 Feb 1718, sp. Mathys and Antje Hoppe

- 48^a. Lea, b. 28 Feb, bp. 1 Apr 1733 Second River, sp. Evert Van Zeyl and Hendrickje Verwey

18. GUYSBERT VAN DER HOEF, son of Jan (#6), baptised at Albany Jan. 20, 1692, likewise settled with his family in Bergen County, New Jersey. He was probably named for his uncle (#1a) who died unmarried. From the baptism of his son Gerrit we know that his wife was named Margrietje Vreeland, and in the Annals of the Vreeland Family she is identified as a daughter of Michael VREELAND and his wife Marya Joris. In his will dated and probated in 1750 Michael mentioned seven children of his deceased daughter Margaret, but as he named neither them nor the father, only two can be positively identified. Hendrick is assigned as a son of Guybert primarily since his eldest son of record was named Guybert and the ages fit. The name of Michael comes through the Vreeland family, but Abraham is placed here tentatively largely since there is no other likely place in the family and the ages fit. Guybert died intestate probably 1758 before 22 Dec. when his eldest son John posted a bond (NJA 32:334).

- + 47. MICHAEL (sup.), b. about 1734
Two others, most likely daughters living in 1750, but not identified.

19. ISAAC VAN DER HOEF, son of Jan (#6), baptised with his twin brother Jacob at Albany on Dec. 9, 1694. He came with his family first to Bergen County and apparently moved successively to Essex and finally Morris County. In his will made at Hanover Township, Morris, dated Mar. 22, and probated Apr. 30, 1771, in which he named most of the children (*) listed below although it is possible there were others who died young. His daughter Dority was given 25 acres of land probably at Pequanock. He had married Elizabeth VAN SEIL Mar. 10, 1726, at the Acquackanonk church, who probably pre-deceased him and whose parentage is unknown. They had:

- 48. Annaetje, b. 10 Aug 1726, bp. Acquackanonk, sp.

20. JACOB VAN DER HOEF, son of Jan (#6), baptised with his twin brother Isaac at Albany on Dec. 9, 1694. He came with his family first to Bergen County but appeared to have finally settled near Acquackanonk in Essex County.

A bond of his appeared in the estate of Samuel Coopor, Esq., of Newark in 1737 (NJA 30:110) which indicates he might have done some trading there. His will which was dated in Bergen County on Dec. 3, 1764 (as Jacob Vanderruf), named children designated (*) below, with son Jacob and son-in-law Cornelius Doremus as executors. This was not probated until Sept. 17, 1787, but in view of his age, it is felt he died closer to the date of writing. Jacob married Apr. 1, 1727 at the Dutch Church of Acquackanonk Elizabeth STEGERS, probably daughter of Thomas Stagg and his unknown first wife, so named in his will of 1724.¹ Their known children are given below, but there were probably others in the twelve year gap from 1733 to 1745:

- 51a. *Saertje, b. 6 Mar, bp. 24 Mar 1728 Second River,
sp. Dirk Steger, Lea Stegers

21. HENDRICK VAN DER HOEF, youngest surviving son of Jan (#6), was baptised May 25 (born May 22), 1696, at the Bergen Dutch Church. Although some of his children were baptised elsewhere, he and his wife became members of the Bergen Church on Mar. 15, 1730, and it is felt he always lived in the town and county of Bergen. He married May 11, 1723, at Bergen Eva Jacobuszen SLOT of Hackensack, whose parentage is unknown, and they had:

FOURTH GENERATION

24.

CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEVEN, Jr., as he was listed in the Brooklyn Census of 1738, was baptised in the Brooklyn Dutch Church on Nov. 27, 1698, son of Cornelius (#7), who was listed just above him in the same census record. That enumeration, in addition to the wife & children named below, indicates there was another daughter of whom there is no record. Very little is known of his life except what was revealed in his will. This will was almost missed since it was probated in New York and in the New York Historical Society abstracts of New York Wills (6:121) it was listed under the name of Van Hoef. Only by reference to the volume of "Corrections" was it located. Probably since he property in Kings and Queens Counties, as well as in Monmouth in New Jersey, was the reason for the probate in New York City wherein all Provincial wills of New York were then filed. Probably not long after the marriage of his daughter to Diedlof Doorn, Cornelius moved from Bedford to Middletown Point in Monmouth County where he dated his will May 10, 1761. In this he mentioned 212 acres of land in Freehold and the farm he had bought from Diedlof Doorn, which he left to his son Cornelius, except for the mines which were to go to all three sons. His son Peter was to have £40 as an outset as the others had plus farm and other lands, and son Michael house where Cornelius was then living and other land. His wife, who was not named, received £30 a year during widowhood, and his daughter, wife of Diedlof Doorn, interest on £100. Since the will was probated Nov. 30, 1761, Cornelius probably died just shortly before then. He had married Elizabeth, daughter of Michael & Styntje (Schamp, who later became his step-mother as well) VAN DER VOORT, and had:

- + 101. *CORNELIUS, b. about 1726
- 104. Styntje (not actually named in the will), b. about 1728, m. Apr. 13, 1749 Diedlof (Roelof in the record) DOORN of (Monmouth County) New Jersey at the Flatbush Dutch Church.
- + 102. *MICHAEL, bp. 17 Sep 1730 Flatlands
- + 103. *PETER, b. about 1732
- 103a. a daughter who died between 1738 and 1761

26.

MARTIN VAN DER HOEVEN, supposed son of Cornelius (#7), was probably born in Brooklyn or Bedford about 1702, although no baptismal record has been found. It is assumed that he was named for his uncle who probably died young. Cornelius was then the only Vanderhoef in Brooklyn who could have been his father since John (#14) was then much too young. The only record actually found of Martin is in the Brooklyn Census of 1738 wherein his family is listed as consisting of 4 males over 10, 1 male under 10, 2 females over and 1 female under 10. Strangely enough of these six children, records of only two probable ones have been found. Jacob is presumed to have been his son since he mentioned a cousin Michael Vandervoort in his will, and this could only have been the son of his aunt Metje who married Peter Van der Voort. Likewise the name Metje runs in this family and his presumed brother Cornelius already had a recorded daughter of that name. The name of his wife is also missing.

28. CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEF, son of Johannes (#14), was baptised at the Dutch Church of Port Richmond, Staten Island, on Mar. 18, 1721/2. A Cornelius Van Derhove, weaver of Staten Island, aged 48 (error for 38?) enlisted Apr. 28, 1759, in Captain Brewerton's Company, New York County Militia (N.Y. Prov. Troops, p. 164), which undoubtedly refers to this Cornelius. After that time he appears to have moved to Woodbridge, New Jersey, where he made his will on May 1, 1785. Since this was probated on June 11 following, he died between those dates. The will names children designated () below. Cornelius had married Annatje KONING (or Anne King) who became a member of the New York Dutch Church on Feb. 21, 1769, and was named as the mother in the following baptisms:

106.	*JOHN, bp. 16 Mar 1740 New York, sp. Abraham de Lanoy & wife Lester Koning. He may be the John who served in the Monmouth County Militia during the Revolution but nothing is known of him after 1785.
107.	MARTIN, bp. (as Marthen) Oct 19, 1742 New York, probably d. young
108.	*JESSE
109.	CORNELIUS, b. 6 June, bp. 23 June 1745 New York, sp. Jacob Vander Hoeve & wife Catherine Golder (#105, cousins)
110.	*Anna, b. 1 July, bp. 8 July 1747 New York, sp. William Randeel & wife Elizabeth Vander Hoef (aunt), m. *Bonnone (Benoni?) FRAZEE
111.	*JAMES, possibly the one who served as a Private in the Middlesex County Militia during the Revolution.
112.	*DANIEL
+ 113.	*CORNELIUS, bp. New York 12 Apr 1752, sp. Daniel Van Dusen, Catherine Van der Hoef, j.d.

114. *Rachel (named for maternal grandmother), b. Aug 1785 in 1785

115. *Elizabeth, single in 1785

32. JOHANNIS VAN DER HOEF, son of Cornelius (#15) and so named in his father's will, was probably born about 1714 in Bergen County. There is scant mention of him in the records, although he did sponsor his niece Elizabeth (daughter of brother Jacob) at her baptism in Hackensack on Dec. 9, 1753, and was mentioned in the will of his brother Lawrence in 1775. Johannis was twice married: (1) Maria EERTSIE, of Kinderhook on Apr. 22, 1738 at Bergen, by whom he apparently had no children, (2) Rachel ACKERMAN on July 4, 1736 at Schraalenburgh by whom he had one child of record. She had been baptised Nov. 25, 1716 at Hackensack, daughter of David & Gerrebright (Romeyn) Ackerman.

116. CORNELIS, bp. Hackensack 9 Sep 1759. He could be the Cornelius who had a child whose name and that of the mother were not given, b. 9 Dec 1781, bp. 20 Jan 1782 at Hackensack, sp. Morris Earle & wife Elizabeth Terhune.

33. LAWRENCE VAN DER HOFF, son of Cornelius (#15) and so named in his father's will, was probably born about 1716 in Bergen County. He at first lived in Hackensack but later moved to New York City where he and his wife became members of the Dutch Church Feb. 17, 1766. He was still living there in 1775 when he made his will on Sept. 6, although his wife had probably predeceased him as she is not mentioned therein. Surviving children named are designated (*) below. Since the will was probated in New York City on Dec. 15, 1785, he probably died there shortly before. He had married Agnietje, daughter of John (GMNJ 18:22) & Marytje (Ackerman) ALLEN, of New York City on May 7, 1743 at the Dutch Church in Hackensack.

117. Elizabeth, bp. New York 18 Feb 1747, sp. Ledowyk Willemsen & wife Rebecca Delameter, d. young listing indicates).

124. *LAWRENCE, bp. New York 24 May 1758, sp. Lodowyk
 Williams & wife Rebecca Lamater. He was buried
 Nov. 20, 1775 in the New York Dutch Church.

125. *Agnetje, bp. New York 7 Jan 1761, sp. Pieter de Marree & the mother.

126. *Jane, m. 10 Nov 1775 in the New York Lutheran Church to Peter REEVES

+ 127. *JOHN, bp. New York 12 Dec 1762, sp. Christian de
 Marre & wife Geesje Romeyn

127a. Cornelis, bp. New York 17 Feb 1765, sp. Abraham
 Swart & wife Alide Van Steenbergen

128. *Sara, bp. New York 29 June 1766, sp. William Doger
 & wife Jannetje Van Saan, m. (N.Y. Lic.) June

+ 129. *CORNELIUS, b. Hackensack 27 Oct, bp. Schraalenburgh
 3 Dec 1769, sp. Jacob Vanderhoef & wife (aunt & uncle of the child).

#4. JACOB VAN DER HOEF, son of Cornelius (#15), was baptised in the Hackensack Dutch Church Mar. 7, 1725. He continued living in Bergen County and with his wife became a member of the Schraalenburgh Dutch Church on Nov. 2, 1766. The last recorded mention of Jacobus and his wife Maria was when they sponsored on May 24, 1774 Marretje, daughter of their daughter Martyntje in the New York Dutch Church. Since he left no will and there is no record of an estate, the time of his death is unknown. Jacob married May 20, 1748 at Hackensack Maria OUTWATER, daughter of Jacob Franszen & Martyntje (Bertholf) Outwater (GBR 55:352), and had:

130. Martyntje, bp. 18 June 1749 Hackensack, sp. Jacob Outwater & wife, m. Henry CARMER of New York

+ 131. CORNELIUS, bp. 29 Sep 1751 Hackensack, sp. Gormaldie and Jannetje Van der Hoef

+ 133. JACOB, bp. New York 14 Jan 1756, sp. Louwrena Van der Hoef & wife Angenietje Eelen

+ 134. THOMAS, bp. Schraalenburgh 6 Aug 1758

+ 135. HENDRICK, bp. Schraalenburgh 27 Sep 1760

136. Margrietje, bp. Schraalenburgh 1 Aug 1762, sp. Robert Van der Hoef & wife, m. (prob) Thomas DORENS

137. ABRAHAM, bp. Schraalenburgh 4 Nov 1764

138. Hendreckje, bp. Schraalenburgh 7 Sep 1766

+ 139. PETER, bp. Schraalenburgh 27 Nov 1768

35. CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEF, son of Cornelius (#15), was baptised at the Hackensack Dutch Church on Sept. 3, 1727. He died at a comparatively early age, in that his will was dated Feb. 18, 1757, New York City, and probated Mar. 3, 1758. In it he described himself as a carpenter and made his wife Jane executor and sole legatee, but since no children were named and no record of any has been found, it is doubtful that he had any. On June 8, 1754 at New York in the Dutch Church he married Jannetje Andriesse or Jane ANDERSON. As his widow she witnessed a baptism in New York in 1758 and joined the Dutch Church there Feb. 19, 1768. She signed a deposition 16 Feb. 1758 as widow and executor of Cornelius, together with Andrew Lowsie, brick-layer of New York and Priscilla, his wife, relative to a mistake made in the count of some prize money paid her as her husband's share (CEM 2:684). She was buried in the New York City Dutch Church on Mar. 31, 1791.

37

37. EGBERT VAN DER HOEF, son of Cornelius (#15), was baptised at Hackensack Mar. 15, 1732. The fact that he had one child baptised at Tappan in Orange (now Rockland) County may indicate that he temporarily moved there, but since it is so close to New York City, this cannot be considered conclusive. He married at Schaelenburgh Jan 27, 1756 Margrieta ENNELT or ANNELI or HENDERSLY whose family is unknown. In the baptism of Cornelius below the mother was listed as Maria LEZIER, but this is felt to have been an error. The children were:

141. Annetje, bp. New York 5 Dec 1756, sp. Lukas Lezier & wife Annetje Verloo, m. Peter SHULTS
142. CORNELIUS, bp. New York 17 Jan 1759, sp. Andries Loosje & Jannetje Anderson, widow of Cornelius Vander Hoef (#35 above). He may be the one who served 12 days as a blacksmith in 1782 (GBR 47:338) and is presumed to be the one who was buried in the New York Dutch Church Jan. 8, 1798. There is no record of any marriage or children.
143. Maria, b. 17 Nov., bp. 8 Dec 1760 at Tappan
144. Elizabet, bp. New York 27 Mar 1763, sp. Lawrence Van der Hoef & Gorritje Van der Hoef, widow of Enoch Errel
145. Geertruy, bp. New York 8 Sep 1765, sp. Lawrence Van der Hoef & wife Agnietje Ellen

40. JOHANNES VAN DER HOEF, son of Johannes (#16), was baptised at Hackensack on Dec. 12, 1714. It is suspected that during the interval between 1741 and 1749 when the family moved from the vicinity of Second River to New York City that there may have been other unrecorded sons named John or Thomas after the known or presumed grandparents, respectively, however none of those names appear in the unidentified section. He married at the Bergen Dutch Church on Apr. 22, 1738, Maria Eertseie, Archeret or ARCHER, born in Kinderhook according to that record, probably daughter of Thomas Archer and Maria Wheeler who sponsored the first child below. Nothing further is known of this family after the baptism of the last child below:

43. CORNELIUS VAN DER HOEF, son of Johannes (#16), was baptised in the New York Dutch Church Aug. 21, 1720. According to Stokes in his Iconography of Manhattan Island (6:152), Cornelius was a New York City watchman in 1741. During 1753-54 he supplied quantities of bricks to the city and was then appointed Constable of the Bouwery Division of the Out Ward. He never had a deed but probably only a lease on an eight acre farm at Cripplebush located at which is now 3rd Avenue between 41st & 43rd Streets. On Mar. 20, 1771 he was listed as a lessee owing money to the city and a committee recommended he be ejected, but he apparently came to terms with the authorities since deeds from his heirs finally vested title to the land in Martin Smith Apr. 16, 1796. He died in 1773 and his will, which named children designated (*) below, was dated August 9 of that year, although not probated until Sep. 28, 1784. He had married Elizabeth, daughter of Abraham DELAMETER and his wife Catherine Benson, at the Tappan Dutch Church on Dec. 9, 1750, and had:

- + 153. *JOHANNES, bp. New York 1 Apr 1753, sp. Johannes 43a JOHN VANDERHOEF, eldest son of Guybert (#18), who posted a bond in the settlement of his father's estate as such in 1758, was probably born in the Fairfield section of Essex County about 1720. On May 27, 1742, he married Lena, daughter of Hendrick & Iventie (Vandercook) FRANCISCO at Acquackanonk. According to this record John was born in Wessel and living in Hanover Township, Morris County. That being so, it can be surmised that there were children baptised either at the Gansegat Dutch or Hanover Presbyterian churches but the baptismal records of both are lost. It is possible that some of the unidentified members of the family living in Sussex County descend from this line.

44. HENDRICK VANDERHOEF, supposed son of Guybert (#18) was probably born in Essex County around 1725. He is placed in this particular family since his eldest son of record was named Guybert and the name of his daughter Margaret was also that of his presumed mother. Hendrick last appeared in New Jersey at the baptism of his son John in 1772 and the family was next recorded in Rensselaer County at the baptism of Jannetje, daughter of his son Guybert in 1774 so it is quite likely that the family moved there between those dates. Since there is a considerable gap from 1754 to 1772 between his children of record, there were no doubt others baptised at the Gansegat Dutch Church whose records are now lost. Hendrick served as a Captain of the 1st Company, 14th Regiment, Rensselaer County, during the Revolution. According to Sylvester's history of that county he also was one of the town officers of Pittston, N.Y., 1789 to 1798. He was listed as of that town in the Census of 1790 having 2 sons over 16, 4 sons under 16, wife and 5 daughters, but of these only the five below have been identified. From the baptism of Johannis we know his wife was named Sarah and the D.A.R. Lineages state she was a DOREMUS. If so she was possibly a daughter of John & Elizabeth Ackerman, although she was not named in his will nor does she appear in Nelson's account of the family. Identified children were:

+ 160. GUYSBERT, b. about 1750
161. Lavinia, b. 1754, d. 1818, m. 1773 Simon VANDERCOOK (D.A.R., op.cit.)

5 Feb 1778 Johannes MANDEVIEL.

161b. Margaret (sup.), b. about 1758, m. (prob.) Neel McNEAL who sponsored a child at Schaghticok with her in 1782.

+ 162. JOHANNIS, bp. 17 May 1772 Pompton Plains

+ 162a. HENDRICK, born probably around 1752

Also four sons and three daughters unidentified. Hendrick died at Cooksburgh, N.Y. in 1797 (D.A.R., op.cit.).

45. GERRIT VANDERHOEF, son of Guybert (#18), was baptised March 29, 1730, at Acquackanonk, having been born on March 14th. From the baptismal records following, we know the name of his wife was Christine WEAVER, but her parentage is undetermined. No will has been found for Gerrit and the time of his death is unknown. Children:

163. Margrita, b. 15 Apr, bp. 13 May 1759 Acquackanonk, sp. Michiel Vreeland, Jr. & Maria Vreeland, m. Acquackanonk 20 June 1778 Adolph BRASS

164. HENDRICK, b. 26 Nov 1760, bp. 25 Jan 1761 Acquackanonk, sp. Hendrick Vanderhoef & Sara Francisco

165. ABRAHAM, b. 26 Nov 1765, bp. 1 Mar 1766 Acquackanonk, sp. Abraham Kool & Elizabeth Davenport

46. ABRAHAM VANDERHOEF, son of Guybert (#18), was born in Wesel, N.J., according to his marriage record, probably about 1727. On June 27, 1747 at the Second River Dutch Church he married Saertje Ryko, both then living at Gansegat (Caldwell). There appear to have been no children and he married secondly Nov. 23, 1752, at Acquackanonk, he then living at Wesel, Sarah BOSS, probably daughter of Hendrick & Dinia (Kierstede) Boss. The will of Abraham (written as "Vandroop") was dated Nov. 30, 1805 in Caldwell, probated Dec. 8, 1805, which places his death between those dates. In it he named the children designated (*) below, and executors were Abrin Vandrop and John A. Kierstede:

+ 166. HENDRICK, b. 30 June, bp. 29 July 1753 Acquackanonk, sp. Hendrick Boss & Dinia Kierstede

166a. *ABRAHAM

166b. *Sarah, m. Thomas *RUJH (?)

166c. *GILBERT

167. *RICHARD or DIRCK

168. *Margaret, m. DOREMUS, mother of *Richard

168a. *Denah

47. MICHAEL VANDERHOEF, supposed son of Guybert (#18), was probably born in Essex County about 1720, and was likely the second son named for his grandfather Michael Vreeland. In 1787 he witnessed the will of Tunis Spear of Acquackanonk (NJA 36:211), who was probably a connection of his wife Tryntje SPIER, whose name we have from the baptismal records below. There were probably other children baptised at Fairfield (Gansegat), but most of the records of the Dutch Church there have been lost except for the years 1741-72. He does not appear of record after 1787. Recorded children were:

169. Rachael, bp. Gansegat 17 Sep 1741, sp. Jacob Spier and Neeltje Court
170. JOHANNIS, b. 28 July, bp. 8 Sep 1754 Second River, sp. Johannes & Rachael Kip
171. Sara, bp. Pompton 17 July 1758, sp. Johannis & Lea Francisco

50. JOHN VANDERHOOF, son of Isaac (#19) and so named in the latter's will, was probably born about 1730 in the Acquackanonk section or possibly Hanover Township, Morris County, where his father later lived. He was listed as a freeholder there on Aug. 31, 1752 (GMNJ 16:61), witnessed wills of Jacob Brinckerhoff of Hackensack Feb. 15, 1771 (NJA 34:65) and of George Bowlby of Hanover Township Apr. 27, 1773 (NJA 34:56), and served as a Private in the Morris County Militia during the Revolution. He was also appointed administrator in the estate of his sister Dorothy in 1782 (NJA 35:406). The will of John, which was undated, showed him at Hanover Township, named sons designated (*), mentioned two unnamed daughters and a wife Hannah, whose surname is not known.

172. *JOHN
173. *ISAAC

54. DIRCK VANDERHOFF, son of Jacob (#20), was baptised at Pompton on May 30, 1746. From the baptism of Peter below, we know his wife's name was Catrina, but her surname has not been discovered. The only basis for assigning Jacob as a son of Dirck is the naming of the latter's presumed son Peter possibly after his uncle, but this is at best extremely tenuous, particularly since no will nor probate records have been found. Children were:

- + 175. PIETER, bp. 20 Sep 1772 Pompton, sp. Pieter & Sapa Jongh
- + 176. JACOB (sup.), b. 1771-72 (grave record)

55. JOHANNES VANDERHOEF, son of Hendrick (#21), was baptised in the Bergen Dutch Church Mar. 30, 1744. He joined the Hackensack Church Aug. 30, 1744 upon confession of faith. On Dec. 26, 1750 he had license to marry Frances (Rachel in the baptismal record) DeGROOT, whose parentage is unknown,¹ and they had one child recorded:

- 176a. Rachael, bp. Hackensack 17 Nov 1751

1. This is the Rachel DeGroot assigned by H. S. Ackerman as the first wife of John #32.

59. PETER VANDERHOEF, son of Hendrick (#21), was probably born at Bergen, N.J., but was baptised in the New York Dutch Church Sept. 1, 1734. As an unmarried man he witnessed the baptism July 23, 1769, of the daughter of his brother Gerrit at Bergen, while he and his wife Rachel Van Blarcom (Blerkon) sponsored a child at Bergen on June 11, 1780. He can be identified in the Census of 1800 as living in Goshen, Orange County, N.Y., aged over 45 with a son and daughter both aged 26-45, and a female under 10, possibly a granddaughter, in the family. According to baptismal records his wife was Rachel Van Blarcom (Blerkon), who was probably the daughter of Johannes & Jannetje (Van Zeyl) Van Blarcom, baptised April 21, 1728, widow of Poulius Vanderbaek, by whom she had had two children Femmetje and Jacob. She is the only Rachel of proper age given in Nelson's account of the family, although he makes no mention of the second marriage. However, it should be noted that the only daughter of record in the family appears to have been named for the maternal grandmother, while Rachel's first daughter probably was named for the family of her first husband. Children were:

177. HENDRICK, b. 22 Oct, bp. 28 Oct 1770 Bergen, sp.
Gerrit vander Hoef & wife Sara Poyer
178. Jannetje, b. 6 May, bp. 18 May 1772 Bergen, sp.
Leujkes van Blerkum & wife Elizabeth (not identified in that family)

60. GERRIT VANDERHOEF, son of Hendrick (#21), was baptised at the Dutch Church on Staten Island on Jan. 21, 1738/9, although he always seems to have lived in the town of Bergen. He sponsored Hendrick, son of his brother Peter above, also Abraham, son of Abraham Van Sickels July 7, 1775, Saertje, daughter of Casparis Prior Oct. 28, 1781, and John, son of James (Joemes) Dad Mar. 23, 1788, all at the Bergen Dutch Church. His will, which named wife and children designated (*) below, was dated Bergen July 31 and probated Sept. 20, 1797, which places his death between those dates. His wife was Sarah Poyer, daughter of Abraham & Pieterje PRYER, named by her father in his will in 1799, and they had:

FIFTH GENERATION

101. CORNELIUS VANDERHOEF (Jr.), son of Cornelius (#24), was probably born in Kings County about 1726, although his baptism is not on record. He possibly preceded his father to Monmouth County where he married (N.J. License) Nov. 1, 1751 Elsie VAN KIRK of Freehold, daughter of William and Lester (Lankinson) Van Kirk, who had been baptised at the Tennent (Presbyterian) Church on Sep. 16, 1733. Since no will is recorded, the time of his death is unknown. Their children were:

201. Elisabeth, bp. Marlboro 28 June 1752, sp. Cornelius Van Der Hoeve & Elizabeth Van de Voor, m. ROBERTS, d. 4 Jan 1819, aged 66.7.8
202. Cornelia, bp. Marlboro 24 Mar 1754, no sponsor, m. Marlboro 1 Aug 1773 Cornelius BLANSE
203. Christina, bp. Marlboro 9 May 1756, no sponsor, m. Marlboro 16 Jan 1781 Joseph MASON
204. Antye, bp. Marlboro 18 Jan 1761

102. MICHAEL VANDERHOEF, son of Cornelius (#24), was baptised at the Dutch Church of New Utrecht in Kings County on Sept. 17, 1730. Nothing is known of him beyond the baptismal records cited below. His wife was an Elizabeth ALLEN of Monmouth County whom he married (N.J. Lic.) Dec. 18, 1760. The children were:

+ 205. CORNELIUS, bp. Marlboro 6 Sep 1761, sp. Cornelius Van Der Hoeven & wife (grandparents)
206. Elizabeth, bp. Marlboro 24 Apr. 1763
207. EELIES (Elias?), bp. Marlboro 30 Apr 1764

103. PETER VANDERHOEF, son of Cornelius (#24), was probably born in Kings County around 1732, although the baptism is not of record. He was named in his father's will. The total absence of wills of these three brothers adds to the difficulties of identifying their children and the parentage of their wives. Peter had married (N.J. Lic.) Maria BASSIT (or DORSETT) of Monmouth County on Mar. 21, 1761, and their children were:

+ 208. CORNELIUS, bp. Marlboro 1 Nov 1762¹ or 1 June 1763
209. JOHN (sup.), m. 25 Dec 1782 Patty BYER at Marlboro (There is no other data on this individual; he probably belonged in this family, however, rather than to the other brothers.)

1. Bergen: Genealogies of New York, p. 1279; the latter date from two transcripts is probably correct.

105. JACOB VAN DER HOVEN, was probably the son of Martin (#26) and born in Bedford, Brooklyn, about 1724-28. His blacksmith shop was mentioned in the will of Nicholas Voght, of Gowanus, Kings County, in 1779 (N.Y.S. 9:75). His will, dated 17 Jan 1776, probated 15 July 1785, named wife Catherine and children designated (*) below, and also his cousin Michael Vandervoort as an executor. This definitely places him as a nephew of Cornelius (#24) and of Metje (Vanderhoef) Vandervoort. On 1 May 1792 (recorded 24 April 1806, Kings 8:344), his widow and Johannes Polhemus, surviving executors (Michael Vandervoort and Thomas Pearseall then deceased), sold for £700 some 42 acres of land on the south side of Brouwer's Mills, Brooklyn Ferry Road, which was doubtless where he had lived. From the baptisms cited below, we know his wife was Catherine GOLDEN (Golding), but her parents in that family have not been identified. Their children were:

210. *Catharina, m. 7 Dec 1770 (N.Y. Lic.) Johannes POLHEMUS (probably the executor above)
211. *Mary, b. Brooklyn, bp. 8 Apr 1750 Flatbush RDC
212. *Metje (Meltje)
213. *Elizabeth
214. NICHOLAS, b. Brooklyn, bp. 30 Mar 1754 Flatbush, prob. d. young

113. CORNELIUS VANDERHOFF, son of Cornelius (#26), was possibly born on Staten Island where his parents then lived, although he was baptised in the New York Dutch Church Apr. 12, 1752. He is probably the one who served as a Private, Capt. Fleming's Company, 2nd Regiment, Essex County (N.J.) State Troops, and also as a Private, 2nd Bn., 2nd Establishment, N.J. Continental Line in the Revolution. Various D.A.R. Lineages (87:24, 104, 287) trace to him, but erroneously give his birth as 1745 which was that of his elder brother who obviously died young. In the Census of 1790, West Ward, New York City, there are listed two families of this name, each with a son under 16, wife and one daughter in the first and two daughters in the second (see #131). One Holland Society lineage states that according to tradition Cornelius, who is said to have drowned in New York harbor, that he was buried in Trinity Church, New York, where baptismal records of his two youngest children are to be found, but the New York Dutch Church lists his burial there on Apr. 22, 1793. From the one baptismal record below his wife's name was Margarita KEYSER, and they had:

* 215. MATHEUS, b. 16 Dec 1781, bp. 21 July 1782 Acquackanonk Dutch Church, sp. Matheus Vander Hoef & Elisabeth Bennet

127. JOHN VANDERHOEF, son of Lawrence (#33), was baptised in the New York Dutch Church Dec. 12, 1762. On Jan. 31, 1781 he married Lydia NYERS, who cannot be identified in the well known New York City family of that name. Other than the baptisms of the children below, no further record of this couple has been found.

216. SARA, b. 11 Jan, bp. 14 Mar 1784 New York, sp.

Frederick & Vrouwte Woerntdyck, m. 1799

John Gilbert BOGERT (GRB 86:108)

217. LAWRENCE, b. 20 Nov, bp. 25 Dec 1785 New York, sp. John & Elizabeth West (aunt & husband)

129. CORNELIUS VANDERHOEF, son of Lawrence (#33), was baptised Dec. 3, 1769 in the Schraalenburgh Dutch Church, although his parents undoubtedly lived in New York City at the time and most likely that was where he was born on the preceding Oct. 27. He was just old enough to have been one of the two of the name listed in the 1790 Census, West Ward, New York City, each having wife and son under 16, one with one daughter and the other with two. Judging from his age he was probably the first of the two. The names of his wife and children have not been found.

131. CORNELIUS VANDERHOOF, son of Jacob (#34), was baptised in the Hackensack Dutch Church on Sep. 29, 1751, but born in 1750 according to D.A.R. Lineage 141:70. A Cornelius Vanderhoef of Little Britain served in the Revolution as a Matross, Capt. Andrew Moody's Company, New York Regiment of Artillery (Col. John Lamb) Aug. 30, 1779 (N.Y. Revolutionary MSS 2:341). Here again he may be one of the two Cornelius' listed in the New York City Census of 1790, although the D.A.R. lineage cited states he died there in that year, having married Marie BEAUGEROD and had:¹

221. Ruth, b. 1789, d. 1849, m. 1805 Michael KLINE,
b. 1777, d. 1817

133. JACOB VANDERHOEF, son of Jacob (#34), was baptised in the New York Dutch Church on Jan. 14, 1756. Jacob probably joined his cousins (see #44 & #160) and other Bergen County families in their movement to Rensselaer County in New York around the time of the Revolution. From the baptismal records we learn that his wife was Katura or Catury GOLDEN whom he probably met upstate. Children were:

1. With several of the same name in this generation moving between New York and New Jersey, identification is extremely difficult and is only tentative at best at this stage.

222. Bethey, bp. 21 Aug 1782 Schaghticoke, sp. Nicholas Groesbeek & Goorty Waldron
223. Susanna, b. 10 Sep 1784, bp. Brunswick, m. Schaghticoke 25 Jan 1806 Silas WICKES
224. JACOB, b. 10 May 1789, bp. Tirossock (GRB 62:206)
225. WILLIAM, b. 22 Mar 1794, bp. Schaghticoke 1 Jan 1797 (there must be an error in date of birth in this or the next following)
226. Margret, b. 12 Jan 1794, bp. Schaghticoke 1 Jan 1797

134. THOMAS VANDERHOEF, son of Jacob (#34), was baptised at the Schraalenburgh Dutch Church Aug. 6, 1758. If Thomas reached maturity, he could have been the father of Richard M. Vanderhoof (see Lee: New Jersey as a Colony &c., 5:158, 307, 316), who named his eldest son Thomas, which was the only other occurrence of the name in this family at that time. This is the primary reason for the inclusion of Thomas here, since there is no other indication that Thomas, son of Jacob, survived infancy. Secondly, the ancestry of the Richard above is otherwise undetermined. Child:

226a. RICHARD M. (sup.), b. 1779-80

135. HENRY VANDER HOFF, son of Jacob (#34), was baptised at the Schraalenburgh Dutch Church Sep. 27, 1760, but he apparently moved to New York City shortly after the Revolution. He served in the War as a Private, Capt. Peter Ward's Troop Light Horse, Bergen County. Although not listed in the 1790 Census in New York City, he made his will there on Feb. 19, 1800 (probated 14 April) and in it named son James, born 1784, to be supported by executor, friend George Berry and also provided for the mother who was not named. The identity of the Jacob Vanderhof who witnessed his will is not clear since his brother of that name had long since moved upstate. Apparently the relationship was not close since Jacob was not made the guardian. From the baptismal record is the name of his wife Susannah BOGERT, but she is not identified in any of the accounts of that family.

227. *JAMES, bp. Jacobus 5 Apr 1784 New York RDC

139. PETER VANDERHOOF, son of Jacob (#34), was baptised in the Schraalenburgh Dutch Church Nov. 27, 1768. In the Census of 1790 he was living in the Out Ward of New York City with his wife, two daughters and five other free persons. No record of the daughters has been found, but from the baptism of a son given below, his wife was Margaret HERRIOT. She apparently died not long after the census since on Dec. 12, 1793 there was recorded a marriage in the New York Presbyterian Church of a Peter with Anne COE. Since his son had also been baptised in that church it appears that Peter was a member there. His recorded child:

228. DAVID, b. 7 Oct, bp. 28 Oct 1787 New York Presb.
Church (GBR 20:180), possibly died young as was not listed in the census of 1790.

153. JOHN VANDERHOOF, son of Cornelius (#43), was baptised in the Dutch Church of New York City April 1, 1753, and was listed in the West ward of the city in 1790 (as "Vanderhoop") with wife, son under 16 and two daughters. Since none of their names, however, appear in the baptismal records of the Dutch, Presbyterian or Trinity Churches there, nothing further is known of the family.

160. GUYSDAET VANDERHOOF, son of Hendrick (#44), was probably born in Essex County, N.J., about 1750, however he moved with his family to Rensselaer County, New York, and in the Census of 1800 he appeared in the town of Northampton, Fulton County, N.Y. (GBR 50:29) together with a Henry and Henry, Jr., probably his eldest son and brother. His will was made at Wells, Montgomery County on Feb. 26, 1825, probated May 12, 1826, and in it he named children designated (*) below, stating Henry was the eldest. He had married on Mar. 21, 1771, Elizabeth MEAD at the Second River Dutch Church and they had:

- * 229. *HENDRICK, b. about 1772
- 230. Jannetje, bp. Schaghticoke, b. 22 Apr 1774, sp.
Hendrick & Sara Vanderhoef
- 231. *JELLES or GILES, b. 12 Dec 1776, bp. Schaghticoke,
sp. Simon van Derkoek & Levyntie van Derhoef
- * 232. JOHANNES, b. 12 Nov 1778, bp. Schaghticoke, sp.
Johannes Mandeviel & Geesha van Derhoef
- 233. *GILBERT, b. about 1780 (or earlier if 1800 Census is correct, then with father in Northampton aged 26-45 with two sons 16-26, wife over 45 and daughter under 10, however it is possible he had married an older widow with two grown sons).
- 234. Sarah, b. 26 May 1782, bp. Schaghticoke, sp. Neal
McNeal & Margaret van Derhoef
- 235. *LISTEL, b. about 1784
- 236. Levyntie, b. 16 July 1786, bp. 18 Feb 1787 Schagh.,
sp. Simon vander Koek & Marytie vander Hoef
- 237. Elizabeth, b. 14 Feb 1791, bp. 6 Mar 1792 Schagh.,

and one (C14) attached to the secondary root, 200 of which were found in the old sand hills in the area of the site. The fragments of old rootlets were mostly composed of two or three roots. The daily ("secondary") process involved was not "surface" cutting, since roots go under ground, while cutting is limited to surface material, which has to remain with the remains of a plant.

162. JOHN VANDERHOOF, son of Hendrick (#44), was baptised May 17, 1772 at Pompton Plains, N.J., but was probably taken by his parents as a child on their removal to Rensseler County. From the two baptismal records we have below his wife's given name was Sarah. Nothing further is known of the family at present. Children:

239. HENRY, b. 21 June, bp. 20 Oct 1793 Schaghticoke,
sp. Michal & Cata Overracker
240. GILBERT, b. 27 Dec 1798, bp. 20 Feb 1799, Schaghticoke, no sponsors

162a. HENRY VANDERHOOF, one of the sons of Hendrick (#44) previously unidentified, was probably born in Essex County about 1750. He was listed in the Census of 1800 (GBR 50:29) in Northampton, Fulton County, N.Y., with his brother Gilbert and having then three sons under 10, one 10-16, wife also aged 26-45 and a daughter under 10. From the baptism below we know his wife's given name was Rachel, and the Van Houten genealogy¹ shows Cornelis & Rachael (Post) VAN HOUTEN had a daughter of that name born Dec. 26, 1749, bp. Jan. 6, 1750 at Acquackanonk. The one child recorded:

241. Catriena, bp. Pompton 5 Aug 1773, sp. Cornelis & Rachael Van Houten (grandparents), probably d. young since not listed in 1800 Census or else was then married

166. HENDRICK VANDERHOFF, son of Abraham (#46), was born June 30 and baptised July 29, 1753 at Acquackanonk. From baptismal records it is known that his wife was Rachael KIERSTED, and in Pryor's account of that family (GBR 89:9), she is identified as the daughter of John & Rachel (Van Houten) Kierstede, born in 1763. They had two children of record:

242. Sarah, b. 17 Aug, bp. 13 Sep 1789 Acquackanonk, sp. Roelof Van Wagenen & Saertje Jurianse
243. Margriatje, b. 12 Oct 1791, bp. Acquackanonk, sp. Arent & Margriatje Kierstede (brother & cousin)

167. RICHARD VANDERHOFF, son of Abraham (#46) and so named in his will, was probably born in Caldwell Township about 1760, or at Gansegat according to his marriage record. He was first married to Sarah THOMAS born in Ferikense on Jan. 19, 1783 at Acquackanonk, by whom he had:

244. Sarah, b. 19 Nov 1783, bp. 11 Jan 1784 Acquackanonk, sp. Hendrick Vanderhoef & Rachel Kierstede (brother & sister-in-law).

1. H.S. Ackerman: Descendants of Roelof Van Houten, who does not cite this marriage.

From the two baptismal records following, it appears as if Richard moved further out into Morris County and married secondly one Catharina YOUNG, by whom he had:

245. DERRICK, bp. 30 Aug 1788 Montville Dutch Church, no sponsors
246 ABRAHAM, bp. 5 Jan 1797 Pompton Plains RDC, sp.
Abraham Young & Nancy Strong (grandparents?)

169. JOHN VANDERHOEF, son of Michael (#47), was born July 7 and baptised Sept. 8, 1754 at the Second River Dutch Church. At the same church he and wife Sara REYKE baptised:

248. Catriena, b. 22 July, bp. 18 Aug 1776, sp. Abraham Reyke & Maryke Rickx, who is probably the one who m. Acquackanonk 11 Jan 1795 Gerrebrand BRUYN

It is probably the same John Vanderhoef, born at Menonkong, living at New Barbadoes Neck, who married a Maria LINSIS or LINSEY, born and living at New Barbadoes Neck on Aug. 8, 1778 at Acquackanonk (also recorded at Pompton). They had:

249. JACOB, b. 28 Jan, bp. 9 Aug 1778 Acquackanonk, sp.
Cornelius Van Vorst & Annatje Outwater

175. PETER VANDERHOFF, son of Dirck (#54), was baptised at Pompton on Sep. 20, 1772. In the Census of 1800 at Goshen in Orange County, New York, there is listed a Peter Van der Hoff, aged 26-45, wife same, son and daughter under 10 and other unidentified females in the household who may have been his wife's relations. She, from the one baptismal record at hand, was Jude SMITH and they had:

250. Elizabeth, b. 9 Feb 1797, bp. Pompton Dutch Church

176. JACOB VANDERHOFF, supposed son of Dirck (#54) was born 1771-72 from his grave in Morris County (GMNJ 7:7). The only basis of assigning Jacob as a son of Dirck is the naming of his presumed first son Peter probably after the boy's uncle above, but this is at best only tentative. He had been married by the Morris County Clerk (GMNJ 4:31) to Anne HOPLAR on Jan. 25, 1796, who died Feb. 27, 1841 in her 69th year. Their presumed son:

251. PETER (sup.), b. 1797-98, d. 17 Apr 1847 in his 50th year; wife Rachael d. 12 Nov 1850 in her 50th year; their graves listed following those above.

LATER GENERATIONS

A few members of the sixth generation of the Vanderhoef family are listed as follows:

205. CORNELIUS VANDERHOEF, son of Micheal (#102), was baptised at the Marlboro Dutch Church on Sept. 6, 1761. There is understandable confusion between this Cornelius and his first cousin of the same approximate age living in Monmouth County also, although the latter is generally referred to as Cornelius Peter? Vanderhoef. Apparently both served together in Capt. Carhart's Company, 1st Regiment, Monmouth County Militia in the Revolution (ORNJ, 795). He is probably the one who married successively on Nov. 29, 1785, Catherine HENDRICKSON, and on Dec. 21, 1786, Martha HULLS, both at the Marlboro Church. In one of these marriages he had:

301. A daughter who m. JACKWAY

An answer to a query in the Monmouth County Democrat of Dec. 2, 1937, is the source of data on the above daughter, and it further states that he married (3) 1791 Mary PATTERSON, of Middletown, a sister of Col. Robert Patterson by whom he had further issue:

302. GILBERT, b. 1800, d. after 1850 in Michigan

303. GILES, died in Ohio

304. Catherine

208. CORNELIUS P. VANDERHOEF, son of Peter (#103) for whom the "P." probably stands, was baptised June 1, 1763 at the Marlboro Dutch Church. He served with his cousin Cornelius in the same company of Monmouth County Militia in the Revolution. He died on May 10, 1816, aged 53.6.23, and was buried at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Monmouth County, then living in Freehold. He had married (1) Batsey, daughter of Lewis & Affy FORMAN on Apr. 27, 1784 at Marlboro (she was born Nov. 10, 1763, died Dec. 22, 1785), and (2) Phoebe, dau. of Thomas & Catherine (Van Emburg) HUNN (born Oct. 21, 1767, died Apr. 4, 1808) of an Albany Family according to Talcott¹ by whom he had:

311. Mary, b. 20 Aug 1787, m. Nicholas Morgan DISBROW and d. 17 Aug 1865, aged 77.11.27

312. THOMAS HUNN, b. 4 Oct 1789, m. Louise BOURDETTE (D.A.R. Lineages 30:278, 73:31)

318. CORNELIUS, b. 1805, d. 1806
319. ADRIAN, b. 1805, d. 1806

215. MATTHEW VANDERHOEF, son of Cornelius (#113) was born Dec. 16, 1781 and baptised July 21, 1782 at the Acquackanonk Church. In 1803 he married Elizabeth TUTHILL, b. 1782, d. 1861, and had:

361. CORNELIUS SUYDAM (middle name in GBR 51:94), b. 1810, d. 1878, m. 1837 Rachael Amelia RANDELL, b. 1819, d. 1860
362. JACOB TUTHILL

226a. RICHARD M. VANDERHOFF, supposed son of Thomas (#134), was probably born 1779-80 near Caldwell. He served in the War of 1812 and was later a farmer and mason at Fairfield in Caldwell Township (see Lee: N.J. as a Colony &c. 5:58). He married Margaret SPEER and had:

381. THOMAS	387. Rachael
382. HENRY	388. Margaret
383. ALLEN	389. WILLIAM R.
384. Maria	390. JOHN
385. CORNELIUS	391. PETER
386. Emeline	392. RICHARD

229. HENDRICK VANDERHOOF, son of Guyebert (#160), was probably born about 1772 in Essex County, N.J. He moved with his parents shortly thereafter to Rensselaer County in New York. He is probably the Henry, Jr., listed in Northampton, Montgomery County in the 1800 Census (GBR 50:29), aged 26-45, with mother over 45, a daughter under 10 and two males aged 16-26 in the household. It is to be noted that this does not correspond with the children listed below and it is felt that the two males may be two of his younger brothers and that two of the three daughters had died young. From baptismal records we only know the first name of his wife which was Mary and they had:

396. Polly, b. 27 July, bp. 10 Aug 1794 Schaghticoke
397. Elizabeth, b. 17 Mar 1796, bp. 4 Feb 1797 Schagh.
398. Cate, b. 20 Oct 1797, bp. 14 Jan 1798 Schaghticoke

1. Bergen: N.Y. & N.J. Geneals., 1279, source for children.
2. Some of his descendants erroneously trace his ancestry back to Jan (#6) and Dorothy Jans.
